PRINCIPAL’S REPORT

It’s another busy week at Gundagai Public School!

Today the students were treated to a free performance from the Northern Districts Symphonic Wind Ensemble. This group of forty school students from various high schools in Northern Sydney performed a variety of musical items and demonstrated the features of a range of wind instruments. The group has been travelling around various parts of NSW and Victoria performing.

I’m looking forward to this week’s assembly with an item being presented from 5/6E. You may have also heard that Gundagai Public School is in the process of forming a School Choir under the coordination of Mrs Argaet, our music teacher. This is a great opportunity for our school to have a premier choir that will be able to perform at the various occasions throughout the year.

PREMIERS READING CHALLENGE

Congratulations to Samantha Gradon, Tahlia Crane, Grace Hlywa, Brooklyn Lloyd, Vada Hindmarsh and Harriette for completing the Premiers Reading Challenge.

PSSA REGIONAL TOUCH FOOTBALL TRIALS

Seven girls from Gundagai Public School combined with players from the small schools at the Regional Touch Football Trials last Monday. The girls played six games in total and where great ambassadors for the school. Zoe Hayes and Chelsea Tout were selected in the possibles and probables. Chelsea impressed the selectors and will now play at St Marys in the Riverina team in early August.

2011 DISTRICT PSSA CROSS COUNTRY

Mr Shipp and Mrs French would like to congratulate all students on their participation at Bongongo last week. Congratulations to those who will be participating at the regional carnival in June. The course at Bongongo was, as usual, a challenge with cow pads and wet grass an extra bonus. All children are to be commended on their efforts. Thank you to all parents and spectators for their support on the day.

Gundagai Public school once again come away with several aged champions and the school aggregate trophy. As well as the age champions, other placegetters now progress to the PSSA Regional Carnival to be held at Deniliquin Forest, Memorial Park, Deniliquin on Tuesday 14th June 2011.
